

SENATE STEERING AND NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Terms of Reference:

1. To prepare the agenda of Senate to allow for timely completion of its policy-making activities and ensure the effective conduct of debate.
2. To ensure that necessary deadlines for the completion of the business of Senate and its various committees are made known and that every effort is being made to meet them.
3. To allocate all matters of Senate business to the appropriate channels or bodies for further action and implementation.
4. Be empowered by Senate to review, periodically, the composition, terms of reference, procedures, and effectiveness of each committee of Senate, and make recommendations to Senate concerning the discontinuation, modification, or establishment of Senate Committees.
5. Upon a specific recommendation by Senate, be empowered to act for Senate, when necessary, between meetings or during such times in which the meetings of Senate as-a-whole are suspended. Such a recommendation shall be made either through a majority vote of senators at a Senate meeting, or by ballot (including electronic mail) at the call of the Chair of Senate.
6. To develop and recommend to Senate for approval regular procedures for the staffing of all standing and ad hoc committees of Senate, joint Board-Senate committees and advisory committees to which Senate appoints members.
7. To solicit and bring forward names of candidates to fill all vacant positions on standing and ad hoc committees of Senate, and the appropriate positions on other committees referred to in (6)
8. To advise Senate on the appropriate structure and the staggering of terms for new standing or ad hoc committees of Senate.
9. To provide a summary report of activities to Senate annually.
